The image features a white background with various black brushstrokes. At the top, there is a thick, horizontal, slightly curved stroke. Below it, several thinner, more dynamic strokes are scattered, some resembling short dashes or small loops. In the center, the word "SERVICES" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font, tilted slightly to the right. Below the text, there are more complex, flowing brushstrokes, including a large, sweeping loop that extends towards the right side of the frame. At the bottom, there are several more strokes, some of which are curved and resemble the tails of loops or small waves. The overall composition is abstract and expressive, with a focus on the word "SERVICES" as the central element.
